

Internship Title: Intercultural Programs Intern

Hours: 10-12 hours per week

Positions Available: 2

Start date/end date: January 7th– June 10th 2019

Must have availability Thursday 3 - 9:30pm, other days of the week are flexible

Mandatory Winter event dates:

Thursday, 17 January - Crash Course

Thursday, 21 February - Unexpected Connections

Saturday, 23 February - MAH Red Ball Gala

Thursday, 7 March - Crash Course

Tuesday, 12 March - UCSC partnership

What makes this opportunity awesome:

You will help create opportunities for community members to experience meaningful connections. These opportunities can be through participatory learning, art and history activities, community conversations, and even social games. You get to share and grow your creative skills of how to build a stronger and more connected community.

Overview:

This position supports planning and producing Thursday night adult focused programs. Interns will collaborate with local community members, lead programs, and facilitate engaging art and history discussions and activities. Interns will gain experience in: arts education, event planning, outreach, designing and leading community programs, collaboration, and community engagement.

What you'll be doing:

- » Prepping, planning, and implementing Thursday night programs
- » Participating actively in discussions at Community Program (co-pro) meetings
- » Researching potential community partners and program activities for events
- » Collaborating with community partners for Intercultural programs
- » Experimenting, planning, and leading community programs for a MAH led programs

You're a great fit for this position if you:

- » Are a self-driven individual who is creatively ambitious and committed to community engagement.
- » Have multitasking skills, are enthusiastic and hardworking with excellent organization and communication skills.

- » Are eager to engage with the community, learn about museum programming, take on a leadership role and creatively develop new ideas
- » Have knowledge or interest in Santa Cruz history.
- » Work well in a collaborative environment as well as individually.
- » Are knowledgeable in the following programs: Microsoft Word, Excel and Google Drive.

Cherry on top

- » Are bilingual Spanish speaking, native Spanish speakers are especially encouraged to apply